

2 October 2018

Dear pupils and parent(s)/ guardian(s),

The Widening Participation Unit at Queen's University has announced the expansion of the post-16 Pathway Opportunity Programme, which is part of its suite of widening access and participation initiatives. This programme is a route to University for young people from Northern Ireland who have the academic potential to study at Queen's University, but who may require additional support and encouragement to reach their full potential.

All participants who successfully complete the programme will receive a guaranteed conditional offer, with the opportunity to qualify for a reduced admissions offer for their chosen course of study at Queen's University. The reduced offer may be up to two A level grades (or equivalent) lower than the standard undergraduate admissions offer.

Course pathways available for 2018/2019 entry are:

- AHSS (Arts, Humanities and Social Sciences)
- Archaeology and Palaeoecology
- Business
- Civil Engineering
- Computer Science
- Food, Microbiology and Environment
- Law

Students on the programme will benefit from a structured series of events throughout Years 13 and 14 which have been designed to aid progression to Queen's University. Compulsory elements of the Pathway will include:

- an admissions guidance and support session
- subject specific tasters
- online activities on the Pathway Virtual Learning Environment
- an assessed residential summer school at the end of Year 13

Pupils from all post-primary schools who meet the essential criteria will be eligible to apply. Applications open on Monday 29th October 2018 and the closing deadline for applications is Friday 16th November 2018.

For further information, please see the attached document, or visit www.qub.ac.uk/wpu.

The online application for the programme can be found at <https://www.qub.ac.uk/directorates/sgc/wpu/PathwayOpportunityProgramme/Applicationsfor2019/>.

Kind regards,
