THINKING OF TRAINING TO BE A SOCIAL WORKER COMMENCING SEPTEMBER 2020? LET US HELP YOU!

You are invited to attend our Social Work Information Evening on Wednesday 2 October 2019, 18:00 – 20:00 in the Whitla Hall at Queen's University Belfast.

We will answer your questions, and explain the Social Work application process, the course content, and how it is delivered. You will hear from our research-active staff, service users who co-facilitate teaching, current students and recent graduates.

Information stands for student finance, disability services, peer mentors, the NISCC and international exchange opportunities will be available. Places are limited, so early registration is highly recommended.

Please register your interest in attending at qub.ac.uk/ssesw

We are one of the leading centres of Social Work education in the UK, with The Times and Sunday Times Good University Guide 2019 ranking Queen's University Social Work in the UK Top 5.

The future is bright for social work graduates – the course ranks joint 3rd in the UK for Graduate prospects according to the Complete University Guide 2019.

Social work training is delivered in partnership with social work agencies, where you will develop core skills valued by service users, carers and employers.
