

6 May 2020

Message from Education Authority regarding Information on Resources:

Dear Principal

We want to ensure that parents who cannot access information readily or who may find it difficult to support their children's education at home during this time are supported as fully as possible.

Attached is a list of online resources available, to help parents who may have additional needs.

Thank you.